Focused Prayer – Who Am I?

Week 1 – I am a Child of the King

In The Name Of Jesus Christ We Pray . . .

- Remove any signs of animosity from our hearts.
- Enrich our lives with strong character as we seek after You.
- Give us willing hearts to go the extra mile for those in need.
- Grant us greater understanding of the circumstances surrounding us.
- We seek You for wisdom in all our relationships.
- Convict us when we become oblivious to the suffering around us.
- Awaken us and move us with compassion for others.
- Help us each to recognize and utilize the gifts You've given us.
- Lead us in the path of righteousness and goodwill.
- Let us be examples of generosity in word and deed.
- Deliver us from indifference and self-centeredness.
- Intensify the desire in our hearts to be women of principle and purpose.
- Show us Your plan for our individual areas of ministry.
- Make us willing to say "Yes" unconditionally to Your will.
- Let our worship be pleasing to You.
- Remove the apathy and indifference in our lives.
- "I am a Child of the King"; my life will portray a child of the King.

Week 2 – I am a Radiant Woman

In The Name Of Jesus Christ We Pray . . .

- Establish our hearts in the truths of Your Word.
- Set us free from negative thinking.
- Help us to radiate the love of Christ in all situations.
- When chaos overtakes our lives, we will trust in You.
- Put a burning desire within us to be spiritually minded.
- Deliver us from the lusts of the flesh that will destroy our walk with You.
- May the fruits of the spirit be abundant in our lives.
- Make us willing to crucify the flesh and walk in the Spirit.
- Instill wisdom and kindness that will be evident in our conversations.
- The power in the tongue; to speak good or evil.
- Fill us with godly graciousness to rise above the mundane trials of life.
- Keep us from offending others with our actions or deeds.
- Make us mindful that Your Word teaches us to take care of our bodies.
- Remind us that our bodies are the temple of the Holy Ghost.
- Forgive us when we harm this earthly body with cravings and gluttony.
- Bless all mothers with the godly attributes found in Proverbs 31.
- Help us to mature spiritually and be set free from spiritual barrenness.
- By Your Grace, we can become "towers of strength" in our world.
- "I am a Radiant Woman"; the Lord's light shines through me.

Focused Prayer – Who Am I?

Week 3 – I am a Servant

In The Name Of Jesus Christ We Pray . . .

- Bless Your people with the spirit of servanthood.
- May we be doers of good and not evil.
- Set us free from malice and strife.
- Help us to humble ourselves before You.
- Fill our hearts with goodwill toward others.
- When we are weak, You will be the strength of our lives.
- Help us to faint not when tribulation comes our way.
- Teach us to love our neighbors as ourselves.
- Let our motives be pleasing to You.
- Take out any hostile attitudes and grant us liberty to serve.
- Enhance our understanding of servanthood.
- Bind insensitivity among us and grant times of refreshing.
- Consecrate us, Lord, to Your service.
- Instill in us the desire to be givers and not takers.
- As Your people, called by Your Name, help us not to be offensive.
- Make us what we ought to be.
- “I am a Servant of God”; I will serve God completely in whatever I do.

Week 4 – I am Gold Tried in the Fire

In The Name Of Jesus Christ We Pray . . .

- Give us courage to stand when tried, knowing “joy comes in the morning”.
- Allow us to be rooted and grounded in Your Holy Word, so we won’t waver.
- Instill in us eternal values, knowing that temporal values will fade away.
- Make us women of great spiritual stability.
- Your Word is truth; help us to hide the Word in our hearts.
- Let us not be forgetful to seek You for direction in all phases of life.
- As women of God, help us to be industrious in everything we do and never slothful.
- Cast away doubt and fear in times of distress.
- Help us to be steadfast and faithful when we wonder where You are.
- Bind feelings of apprehension and fear when the enemy comes in like a flood.
- You are our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble.
- Teach us to be still and know that You are God.
- Show us the way to glorify You while going through the fire.
- Keep us from self-pity when we face the trials of life.
- Grant us a heart for true unadulterated worship.
- Make us willing partakers of Your sufferings, so we can rejoice in victory.
- Tried as silver in the fire, You have brought us through great affliction.
- You are the God of our salvation; we will not accept defeat.
- “I am Gold Tried in Fire”; God’s reflection in my life is becoming more and more clear.
